

THE DEMOCRATS SWEEP STATE

Princess Anne, and W. A. Willeroy (Democrat) was elected from Hanover and King William, the former county having the day for him.

The probable defeat of Major John T. Cowan by Hon. C. A. Heermans (Republican) in Montgomery, is something of a surprise, though the county is always divided.

The victory of Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottingham, for the Senate in the Twenty-eighth District, was not unexpected, though the anti-Mann bill people made a desperate effort to beat him. Hodges, of Buena Vista, Bath and Highland caused a surprise by returning a solid Democratic delegation to the Legislature. Mr. Roy G. Mitchell, the member from Rockbridge, is a wealthy young horse breeder, and owns a seat on the New York Stock Exchange valued at $90,000.

The floater delegate from the district, Mr. A. W. Sterrett, of Highland, has a wide family connection and though from Highland, is named of Rockbridge.

In Lunenburg and Dinwiddie, the Democrats made no House nominations. Nothing has been heard from the former, while it looks as if Hon. Thomas B. Clarke, a former member of the House, has been chosen from the latter.

This Legislature chosen yesterday, will elect a successor to Major John W. Daniel, in the United States Senate, and having been renominated by the Democrats, he will succeed himself by an overwhelming majority.

ACCOMAC COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ACCOMAC, VA., Nov. 3.—The full Democratic ticket was elected in this county. There was a light vote, owing to the Republicans not putting up any ticket. Lookay Collier, floater, candidate for the House of Delegates.

AMHERST COUNTY.

Scott's Name Scratched and Campbell's Put on Ticket.

AMHERST, VA., Nov. 3.—The election passed off very quietly in Amherst county. There was no opposition to the Democratic nominees for either county or district offices and the vote polled has been exceedingly small, hardly half as many votes were cast as were polled in the Democratic primary.

APPOMATTOX COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) APPOMATTOX, VA., Nov. 3.—The only contests in the county were for State Senate and attorney for the Commonwealth. The Democratic ticket, carried the county over Franklin, Republican, for the Senate by about 550, and E. Ferguson, Democrat, was elected over E. H. Hixson, independent, by about 800.

CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 3.—The following vote was cast in Alexandria city to-day: For Legislature, H. Machen, Democrat, for State Senate, 482; for Dr. F. M. Brooks, Republican, for State Senate, 153; for James R. Caton, Democrat, for House of Delegates, 63. Mr. Caton had no opposition.

BATH COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HOT SPRINGS, VA., Nov. 3.—Returns of to-day's election in Bath county show election of H. H. Byrd, Commonwealth's attorney, Democrat; John T. Curran, sheriff, Democrat; also probable election of J. M. Douglas, treasurer, also Democrat. Samuel W. Sterrett, Democratic candidate for Legislature, has carried county, by small majority.

BEDFORD COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BEDFORD CITY, VA., Nov. 3.—The election to-day was full of intense interest and a large vote was cast, but owing to the length of the ballots the judges felt they cannot possibly finish the count before morning.

BUFFALO COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUFFALO, VA., Nov. 3.—The election to-day was full of intense interest and a large vote was cast, but owing to the length of the ballots the judges felt they cannot possibly finish the count before morning.

CLARKE COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BERRYVILLE, VA., Nov. 3.—Only about one-third of the registered vote was polled in Clarke county to-day. All Democratic nominees were elected by large majorities. Incomplete returns indicate that Fulton, for Senate, will have 500 majority.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CUMBERLAND C. H. VA., Nov. 3.—The vote in two districts is as follows: Mann, 218; Sanders, 64; Moss, House, 240; Shepard, 151; For county treasurer, J. B. Smith, Democrat, 47; no opposition; Smith, Commonwealth's attorney, 235 majority; Davis, commissioner District No. 1, no opposition, 446; G. C. Adams, commissioner District No. 2, 277 majority. One district to be heard from.

CULPEPER COUNTY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CULPEPER, VA., Nov. 3.—The election in this county, closed off quietly, the entire Democratic ticket being elected without any opposition. Only a fifth of the total vote was cast in this county.

DANVILLE AND PITTSYLVANIA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 3.—The election in Danville and Pittsylvania county to-day resulted in a complete victory for the Democrats, the ticket winning out in every precinct. The voting in the city was small, only a short percentage of the strength being polled. The vote in the country was complete, but enough is already in to insure the unequalled success of the Democratic ticket.
